LOFAX 13	Approved For Release 200	,	82-00457RQ	04400170004-8
	CLASSIFICATION	Suomer)		2
COUNTRY			25X1REPORT	NO
OPIC_Sov	iet Troops in COTTBUS		R. (1-16.00)		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
	25X1	,		L :05V4
EVALUATION		ACE OBTAINED		25X1
DATE OF CO	ONTENT Mid-November to 12	December 1949		1. 2000
DATE OBTAI	NED_	DATE PRE	PARED	February 1950
REFERENCE	$	^¹ 25X1
PAGES	3 ENCLOSURES (NO. &	TYPE)	-
REMARKS_		DE	TIIDN T	O CIA LIBR	ARY
		KE	TOKA IV	J CIN LIDI
			3 .1	- COTHUNG
25X1 1.	a. The AT artillery unit (N 52/A 57), held firing p	from the Alvens ractices in LIB	Leben Kaser BUROSE (N	me, COTTBUS 52/A 49) from	10 to 17 November 1949.	•
25X1	b. The tank units station practices in the EICHON (N	ed in the Herma I 52/A 47) area	nn-Loens Ke almost even	aserne held fi ry ni ë ht durig	eld E
	November 1949. Passenger were observed in the kaser	Cars		and truck
25X1	c. Col SHIRBAKOV and Maj		mtified in	the Hermann I	oens
25X1	Kaserne on 25 November 194	9.
2.	The COTTBUS kasernes were	occupied as fol	lows on 26	November 1949) :
-	a. Nachrichten Kaserne on	ı Karl-Liebknech	tstrause:
	Occupied to capacity by tr Six game of about 180 mm of launcher left the kaserne	caliber and one	truck with	mounted rocke	os. et
	b. Sachsendorf Kaserne
25X1	Occupied to capacity by trout branch-of-service insi wooden buildings were being in front of the garage	i » nia. No heavy	weapons w	ere seen. Des	stroyea
25X1
20/1	c. Hermann Loens Kaserne:
	Abou, half occupied by a t To4 tanks were stationed i seen moving toward the kas	in the kaserne.	al resident Three tan	s said that a ks of this ty	bout 15 pe were
3.	obtained on 28 November 19	949:	Lon of COTI	4	was X1
	CLASSIFICATION This document is hereby regraded CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with letter of 16 October 1978 from Director of Central Intelligence to Archivist of the United States. NexApproved For Release 200	th the notice the control of the con		ocument No. Le Change in Cla Deglassified Last Changed T	55. III

a. Hermann Loens Kaserne: Occupied by a division headquarters and a tank unit with about 500 officers and EM. There was heavy motor vehicle traffic. 1 b. Funker Kaserne on Gulbenerstrasse: Occupied by an AAN unit of about 500 troops, including numerous very young soldiers, allegedly recruits. Three AA guns of about 80 mm caliber were seen in the kaserne area. Four other AA guns of the same caliber were emplaced on the 5% border of the landing field of the arriceld. Motor vehicles of the unit, having numbers of the fa-6-xx series, were parked opposite the main entrance of the simileld. Truck occupied by about 15 soldiers, went toward the kaserne. A. The following information on COTTBUS kasernes was obtained on 12 Decembe 1949; a. Artillerie Kaserne on Karl-liebknechtstrasse: Occupied by artillery and rocket Launcher units of about 800 troops and a signal unit of about 50 men. Most of the troops were recruits, 17 or 18 years of age. Older soldiers were employed as clerks, instructors and drivers, 76.2-mm guns, guns of larger caliber, rocket launchers mounted on trucks (including truck — and Mr files were seen in the kaserne area. Soldiers were trained with guns, aiming circles, AT rifles and underwent drill practice. The following motor vehicles were identified: 1		25X1 Approved For Relea se 2004/07/08 : CIA-RDP82-00457R 004400170004-8
Occupied by a division headquarters and a tank unit with about 500 officers and EM. There was heavy motor vehicle traffic. 1 b. Funker Kaserne on Gulbenerstrasse: Occupied by an AAA unit of about 500 troops, including numerous very young soldiers, allegedly recruits. Three AA guns of about 80 mm caliber were seen in the kaserne area. Four other AA guns of the same caliber were emplaced on the 5% border of the landing field of the airfield. Motor vehicles of the unit, having numbers of the f4-46-xx series, were parked opposite the main entrance of the airfield. Truck occupied by about 15 soldiers, went toward the kaserne. A. The following information on COTTBUS kasernes was obtained on 12 Decembe 1949: a. Artillerie Kaserne on Karl-Liebknechtstrasse: Occupied by artillery and rocket launcher units of about 800 troops and a signal unit of about 50 men. Most of the troops were recruits, 17 or 18 years of age. Older soldiers were employed as clerks, instructors and drivers. 76.2-mm guns, guns of larger caliber, rocket launchers amounted on trucks (including truck and and an including truck and an including truck and underwent drill practice. The following motor vehicles were identified: bruck, parked in the kaserne yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red opaulets, entering the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red opaulets, entering the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red opaulets, entering the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a well-red yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a well-red yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a wear observed with including truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occ	1	CD/CD: ID
Occupied by a division headquarters and a tank unit with about 500 officers and EM. There was heavy motor vehicle traffic. b. Funker Kaserne on Gulbenerstrase: Occupied by an AAA unit of about 500 troops, including numerous very young soldiers, allegedly recruits. Three AA guns of about 80 mm caliber were seen in the kaserne area. Four other AA guns of the same caliber were emplaced on the 5% border of the landing field of the airfield. Motor vehicles of the unit, having numbers of the fA-46-xx series, were parked opposite the main entrance of the airfield. Truck occupied by about 15 soldiers, went toward the kaserne. A. The following information on COTTBUS kasernes was obtained on 12 Decembe 1949: a. Artillerie Kaserne on Karl-Liebkoschtstrasse: Occupied by artillery and rocket launcher units of about 800 troops and a signal unit of about 50 men. Most of the troops were recruits, 17 or 18 years of age. Older soldiers were employed as clerks, instructors and drivers. 76.2-mm guns, guns of larger caliber, rocket launchers amounted on trucks (including truck and unders. The following motor vehicles were identified: The following motor vehicles were identified: bruck, parked in the kaserne yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red apaulets, entering the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red apaulets, entering the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red apaulets, entering the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a well-red yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a well-red yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a well-red yard passenger with yard yard yard yard yard yard yard yard		. 2
Occupied by a division headquarters and a tank unit with about 500 officers and EM. There was heavy motor vehicle traffic. b. Funker Kaserne on Gulbenerstrase: Occupied by an AAA unit of about 500 troops, including numerous very young soldiers, allegedly recruits. Three AA guns of about 80 mm caliber were seen in the kaserne area. Four other AA guns of the same caliber were emplaced on the 5% border of the landing field of the airfield. Motor vehicles of the unit, having numbers of the fA-46-xx series, were parked opposite the main entrance of the airfield. Truck occupied by about 15 soldiers, went toward the kaserne. A. The following information on COTTBUS kasernes was obtained on 12 Decembe 1949: a. Artillerie Kaserne on Karl-Liebkoschtstrasse: Occupied by artillery and rocket launcher units of about 800 troops and a signal unit of about 50 men. Most of the troops were recruits, 17 or 18 years of age. Older soldiers were employed as clerks, instructors and drivers. 76.2-mm guns, guns of larger caliber, rocket launchers amounted on trucks (including truck and unders. The following motor vehicles were identified: The following motor vehicles were identified: bruck, parked in the kaserne yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red apaulets, entering the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red apaulets, entering the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red apaulets, entering the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a well-red yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a well-red yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a well-red yard passenger with yard yard yard yard yard yard yard yard
Occupied by a division headquarters and a tank unit with about 500 officers and EM. There was heavy motor vehicle traffic. b. Funker Kaserne on Gulbenerstrase: Occupied by an AAA unit of about 500 troops, including numerous very young soldiers, allegedly recruits. Three AA guns of about 80 mm caliber were seen in the kaserne area. Four other AA guns of the same caliber were emplaced on the 5% border of the landing field of the airfield. Motor vehicles of the unit, having numbers of the fA-46-xx series, were parked opposite the main entrance of the airfield. Truck occupied by about 15 soldiers, went toward the kaserne. A. The following information on COTTBUS kasernes was obtained on 12 Decembe 1949: a. Artillerie Kaserne on Karl-Liebkoschtstrasse: Occupied by artillery and rocket launcher units of about 800 troops and a signal unit of about 50 men. Most of the troops were recruits, 17 or 18 years of age. Older soldiers were employed as clerks, instructors and drivers. 76.2-mm guns, guns of larger caliber, rocket launchers amounted on trucks (including truck and unders. The following motor vehicles were identified: The following motor vehicles were identified: bruck, parked in the kaserne yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red apaulets, entering the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red apaulets, entering the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red apaulets, entering the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a well-red yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a well-red yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a well-red yard passenger with yard yard yard yard yard yard yard yard Occupied by a division headquarters and a tank unit with about 500 officers and EM. There was heavy motor vehicle traffic. b. Funker Kaserne on Gulbenerstrase: Occupied by an AAA unit of about 500 troops, including numerous very young soldiers, allegedly recruits. Three AA guns of about 80 mm caliber were seen in the kaserne area. Four other AA guns of the same caliber were emplaced on the 5% border of the landing field of the airfield. Motor vehicles of the unit, having numbers of the fA-46-xx series, were parked opposite the main entrance of the airfield. Truck occupied by about 15 soldiers, went toward the kaserne. A. The following information on COTTBUS kasernes was obtained on 12 Decembe 1949: a. Artillerie Kaserne on Karl-Liebkoschtstrasse: Occupied by artillery and rocket launcher units of about 800 troops and a signal unit of about 50 men. Most of the troops were recruits, 17 or 18 years of age. Older soldiers were employed as clerks, instructors and drivers. 76.2-mm guns, guns of larger caliber, rocket launchers amounted on trucks (including truck and unders. The following motor vehicles were identified: The following motor vehicles were identified: bruck, parked in the kaserne yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red apaulets, entering the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red apaulets, entering the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red apaulets, entering the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a well-red yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a well-red yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a well-red yard passenger with yard yard yard yard yard yard yard yard
b. Funker Kassrme on Gulbenerstrasse: Occupied by an AA1 unit of about 500 troops, including numerous very young soldiers, allegedly recruits. Three AA guns of about 80 mm caliber were seen in the kasseme area. Four other AA guns of the same caliber were emplaced on the 5% border of the landing field of the airfield. Motor vehicles of the unit, having numbers of the f4-46-xx series, were parked opposite the main entrance of the airfield. Truck occupied by about 15 soldiers, went toward the kaseme. 4. The following information on COTTBUS kasemes was obtained on 12 Decembe 1949: a. Artillerie Kaseme on Karl-Liebkmechtstrasse: Occupied by artillery and rocket Launcher units of about 800 troops and a signal unit of about 50 men. Most of the troops were recruits, 17 or 18 years of age. Older soldiers were employed as clerks, instructors and drivers. 76.2-mm guns, guns of Larger caliber, rocket Launchers mounted on trucks (including truck and AT rifles were seen in the kaseme area. Soldiers were trained with guns, aiming circles, AT rifles and underwent drill practice. The following motor vehicles were identified: truck, parked in the kaseme yard truck, parked in the kaseme yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red epaulets, leaving the kaseme truck, parked in the kaseme yard passenger car, occupied by twelve solders, leaving the kaseme truck, loaded with boxes, entering the kaseme. b. Kaseme south of SACHSENDORF: Occupied by: (1) Artillery unit of about 800 troops, including older personnel and recruits. Two AT guns, of 40 to 50 mm callber were observed with the troops. Motor weinicles driven by soldiers wearing artillery insignia, were observed. (2) Fully-motorized infentry unit of about 800 troops, mostly 17 or 18 year, -old recruits. Int the unit cadre personnel were trained men.		a. Hermann Loens Kaserne:
b. Funker Kaserne on Gulbenerstrasse: Occupied by an AAA unit of about 500 troops, including numerous very young soldiers, allegedly recruits. Three AA guns of about 80 mm caliber were seen in the kaserne area. Four other AA guns of the same caliber were emplaced on the 5% border of the landing field of the airfield. Motor vehicles of the unit, having numbers of the \(\frac{L}{L} - \frac{L}{L} - \text{x} \) series, were parked opposite the main entrance of the airfield. Truck occupied by about 15 soldiers, went toward the kaserne. 4. The following information on COTTBUS kasernes was obtained on 12 Decembe 1949: 4. Artillerie Kaserne on Karl-Liebkmechtstrasse: Occupied by artillery and rocket launchers units of about 800 troops and a signal unit of about 50 men. Most of the troops were recruits, 17 or 18 years of age. Older soldiers were employed as clerks, instructors and drivers. 76.2-mm guns, guns of larger caliber, rocket launchers mounted on trucks (including truck) and AT rifles were seen in the kaserne area. Soldiers were trained with guns, aiming circles, AT rifles and underwent drill practice. The following motor vehicles were identified: Truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by an officer with gold-red apsalets, entering the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by an officer with gold-red apsalets, entering the kaserne truck, loaded with boxes, entering the kaserne truck, occupied by: (1) Artillery unit of about 800 croops, including older personnel and recruits. Two AT guns, of 40 to 50 mm caliber were observed with the troops. Motor vehicles driven by soldiers wearing artillery insignia, were observed with the troops. Motor vehicles driven by soldiers wearing artillery insignia, were observed. (2) Fully-motorized infantry unit of about 800 troops, mostly 17 or 18 year, -old recruits. Unly the unit cadre personnel were trained men.
b. Funker Kaserne on Gulbenerstrasse: Occupied by an AAA unit of about 500 troops, including numerous very young soldiers, allegedly recruits. Three AA guns of the same caliber were seen in the kaserne area. Four other AA guns of the same caliber were emplaced on the SW border of the landing field of the airfield. Motor vehicles of the unit, having numbers of the fa-46-xx series, were parked opposite the main entrance of the airfield. Truck occupied by about 15 soldiers, went toward the kaserne. 4. The following information on COTTBUS kasernes was obtained on 12 Decembe 1949: a. Artillerie Kaserne on Karl-Liebknechtstrasse: Occupied by artillery and rocket launcher units of about 800 troops and a signal unit of about 50 men. Most of the troops were recruits, 17 or 18 years of age. Older soldiers were employed as clerks, instructors and drivers. 76.2-mm guns, guns of larger caliber, rocket launchers mounted on trucks (including truck] and AT rifles were seen in the kaserne area. Soldiers were trained with guns, aiming circles, AT rifles and underwent drill practice. The following motor vehicles were identified: Truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red spaulets, leaving the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by an officer with gold-red spaulets, entering the kaserne truck, loaded with boxes, entering the kaserne truck, loaded with boxes, entering the kaserne. b. Kaserne scuth of SACHSENDORF: Occupied by: (1) Artillery unit of about 800 croops, including older personnel and recruits. Two AT guns, of 40 to 50 mm caliber were observed with the troops. Motor vehicles driven by soldiers wearing artillery insignia, were observed. (2) Fully-motorized infantry unit of about 800 troops, mostly 17 or 18 yearold recruits. July the unit cadre personnel were trained men.		There was heavy motor vehicle traffic.
b. Funker Kaserne on Gulbenerstrasse: Occupied by an AAA unit of about 500 troops, including numerous very young soldiers, allegedly recruits. Three AA guns of about 80 mm caliber were seen in the kaserne area. Four other AA guns of the same caliber were seen in the kaserne area. Four other AA guns of the same caliber were emplaced on the 5% border of the landing field of the atrifield. Motor vehicles of the unit, having numbers of the full-46-xx series, were parked opposite the main entrance of the airfield. Truck occupied by about 15 soldiers, went toward the kaserne. 4. The following information on COTTBUS kasernes was obtained on 12 December 1949: a. Artillerie Kaserne on Karl-Liebkmechtstrasse: Occupied by artillery and rocket launcher units of about 800 troops and a signal unit of about 50 men. Most of the troops were recruits, 17 or 18 years of age. Older soldiers were employed as clerks, instructors and drivers. 75.2-mm guns, guns of larger caliber, rocket launchers mounted on trucks (including truck and AT rifles were seen in the kaserne area. Soldiers were trained with guns, aiming circles, AT rifles and underwent drill practice. The following motor vehicles were identified: truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red epaulets, leaving the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by an officer with gold-red opaulets, entering the kaserne truck, loaded with boxes, entering the kaserne. b. Kaserne south of SACHSENDORF: Occupied by: 1 Artillery unit of about 800 croops, including older personnel and recruits. Two AT guns, of 40 to 50 mm caliber were observed with the troops. Motor vehicles driven by soldiers wearing artillery insignia, were observed. 2 Fully-motorized infantry unit of about 800 troops, mostly 17 or 18 year, old recruits. July the unit cadre personnel were trained men.	K1
b. Funker Kaserne on Gulbenerstrasse: Occupied by an AAA unit of about 500 troops, including numerous very young soldiers, allegedly recruits. Three AA guns of about 80 mm caliber were seen in the kaserne area. Four other AA guns of the same caliber were seen in the kaserne area. Four other AA guns of the same caliber were emplaced on the 5% border of the landing field of the atrifield. Motor vehicles of the unit, having numbers of the full-46-xx series, were parked opposite the main entrance of the airfield. Truck occupied by about 15 soldiers, went toward the kaserne. 4. The following information on COTTBUS kasernes was obtained on 12 December 1949: a. Artillerie Kaserne on Karl-Liebkmechtstrasse: Occupied by artillery and rocket launcher units of about 800 troops and a signal unit of about 50 men. Most of the troops were recruits, 17 or 18 years of age. Older soldiers were employed as clerks, instructors and drivers. 75.2-mm guns, guns of larger caliber, rocket launchers mounted on trucks (including truck and AT rifles were seen in the kaserne area. Soldiers were trained with guns, aiming circles, AT rifles and underwent drill practice. The following motor vehicles were identified: truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red epaulets, leaving the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by an officer with gold-red opaulets, entering the kaserne truck, loaded with boxes, entering the kaserne. b. Kaserne south of SACHSENDORF: Occupied by: 1 Artillery unit of about 800 croops, including older personnel and recruits. Two AT guns, of 40 to 50 mm caliber were observed with the troops. Motor vehicles driven by soldiers wearing artillery insignia, were observed. 2 Fully-motorized infantry unit of about 800 troops, mostly 17 or 18 year, old recruits. July the unit cadre personnel were trained men.
Occupied by an AAA unit of about 500 troops, including numerous very young soldiers, allegedly recruits. Three AA guns of about 80 mm caliber were seen in the kaserne area. Four other AA guns of the same caliber were emplaced on the 5% border of the landing field of the airfield. Motor vehicles of the unit, having numbers of the [4-46-xx series, were parked opposite the main entrance of the airfield. Truck occupied by about 15 soldiers, went toward the kaserne. 4. The following information on COTTBUS kasernes was obtained on 12 Decembe 1949: a. Artillerie Kaserne on Karl-Liebkmechtstrasse: Occupied by artillery and rocket launcher units of about 800 troops and a signal unit of about 50 men. Most of the troops were recruits, 17 or 18 years of age. Older soldiers were employed as clerks, instructors and drivers. 76.2-mm guns, guns of larger caliber, rocket launchers mounted on trucks (including truck and AT rifles were seen in the kaserne area. Soldiers were trained with guns, aiming circles, AT rifles and underwent drill practice. The following motor vehicles were identified: The following motor vehicles were identified: Truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red epaulets, entering the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by an officer with gold-red opaulets, occupied by twelve solders, leaving the kaserne truck, loaded with boxes, entering the kaserne truck, loaded with boxes, entering the kaserne. b. Kaserne south of SACHSENDORF: Occupied by: (1) Artillery unit of about 800 troops, including older personnel and recruits. Two AT guns, of 40 to 50 mm caliber were observed with the troops. Motor vehicles driven by soldiers wearing artillery insignia, were observed. (2) Fully-motorized infantry unit of about 800 troops, mostly 17 or 18 year old recruits. Only the unit cadre personnel were trained men.	(1
young soldiers, allegedly recruits. Three AA guns of about 80 mm caliber were seen in the kaserne area. Four other AA guns of the same caliber were emplaced on the 5% border of the landing field of the airfield. Motor vehicles of the unit, having numbers of the [4-46-xx series, were parked opposite the main entrance of the airfield. Truck occupied by about 15 soldiers, went toward the kaserne. 4. The following information on COTTBUS kasernes was obtained on 12 Decembe 1949: a. Artillerie Kaserne on Karl-Liebkmechtstrasse: Occupied by artillery and rocket Launcher units of about 800 troops and a signal unit of about 50 men. Most of the troops were recruits, 17 or 18 years of age. Older soldiers were employed as clerks, instructors and drivers. 76.2-mm guns, guns of larger caliber, rocket launchers mounted on trucks (including truck	_	b. Funker Kaserne on Gulbenerstrasse:
caliber were emplaced on the 5% border of the landing field of the airfield. Motor vehicles of the unit, having numbers of the 14-46-xx series, were parked opposite the main entrance of the airfield. Truck occupied by about 15 soldiers, went toward the kaserne. 4. The following information on COTTBUS kasernes was obtained on 12 Decembe 1949: a. Artillerie Kaserne on Karl-Liebkrechtstrasse: Occupied by artillery and rocket launcher units of about 800 troops and a signal unit of about 50 men. Most of the troops were recruits, 17 or 18 years of age. Older soldiers were employed as clerks, instructors and drivers. 76.2-mm guns, guns of larger caliber, rocket launchers mounted on trucks (including truck and AT rifles were seen in the kaserne area. Soldiers were trained with guns, aiming circles, AT rifles and underwent drill practice. The following motor vehicles were identified: (1		young soldiers, allegedly recruits. Three AA guns of about 80 mm series, were parked opposite the main entrance of the sirfield. Truck Cocupied by about 15 soldiers, went toward the kaserne. The following information on COTTBUS kasernes was obtained on 12 December 1949: a. Artillerie Kaserne on Karl-Liebkmechtstrasse: Occupied by artillery and rocket launcher units of about 800 troops and a signal unit of about 50 men. Most of the troops were recruits, 17 or 18 years of age. Older soldiers were employed as clerks, instructors and drivers. 76.2-mm guns, guns of larger caliber, rocket launchers mounted on trucks (including truck and AT rifles were seen in the kaserne area. Soldiers were trained with guns, aiming circles, AT rifles and underwent drill practice. The following motor vehicles were identified: Truck, parked in the kaserne yard		caliber were emplaced on the SW border of the landing field of the occupied by about 15 soldiers, went toward the kaserne. 4. The following information on COTTBUS kasernes was obtained on 12 Decembe 1949: a. Artillerie Kaserne on Karl-Liebkuschtstrasse: Occupied by artillery and rocket launcher units of about 800 troops and a signal unit of about 50 men. Most of the troops were recruits, 17 or 18 years of age. Older soldiers were employed as clerks, instructors and drivers. 76.2-mm guns, guns of larger caliber, rocket launchers mounted on trucks (including truck ———————————————————————————————————— Occupied by artillery and rocket launcher units of about 800 troops and a signal unit of about 50 men. Most of the troops were recruits, 17 or 18 years of age. Older soldiers were employed as clerks, instructors and drivers. 76.2-mm guns, guns of larger caliber, rocket launchers mounted on trucks (including truck and AT rifles were seen in the kaserme area. Soldiers were trained with guns, aiming circles, AT rifles and underwent drill practice. The following motor vehicles were identified: Truck, parked in the kaserne yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red epaulets, entering the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by an officer with gold-red epaulets, entering the kaserne truck, loaded with boxes, entering the kaserne. Kaserne south of SACHSENDORF: Occupied by: (1) Artillery unit of about 800 troops, including older personnel and recruits. Two AT guns, of 40 to 50 mm caliber were observed with the troops. Motor vehicles driven by soldiers wearing artillery insignia, were observed. (2) Fully-motorized infantry unit of about 800 troops, mostly 17 or 18 year, old recruits. Only the unit cadre personnel were trained men.	(1 [
Occupied by artillery and rocket launcher units of about 800 troops and a signal unit of about 50 men. Most of the troops were recruits, 17 or 18 years of age. Older soldiers were employed as clerks, instructors and drivers. 76.2-mm guns, guns of larger caliber, rocket launchers mounted on trucks (including truck	4.
a signal unit of about 50 men. Most of the troops were recruits, 17 or 18 years of age. Older soldiers were employed as clerks, instructors and drivers. 76.2-mm guns, guns of larger caliber, rocket launchers mounted on trucks (including truck		a. Artillerie Kaserne on Karl-Liebkuschtstrasse:
truck, parked in the kaserne yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red epaulets, leaving the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by an officer with gold-red epaulets, entering the kaserne truck, occupied by twelve solders, leaving the kaserne truck, loaded with boxes, entering the kaserne. b. Kaserne south of SACHSENDORF: Occupied by: (1) Artillery unit of about 800 troops, including older personnel and recruits. Two AT guns, of 40 to 50 mm caliber were observed with the troops. Motor vehicles driven by soldiers wearing artillery insignia, were observed. (2) Fully-motorized infantry unit of about 800 troops, mostly 17 or 18 rear -old recruits. Unly the unit cadre personnel were trained men.	X1	a signal unit of about 50 men. Most of the troops were recruits, 17 or 18 years of age. Older soldiers were employed as clerks, instructors and drivers. 76.2-mm guns, guns of larger caliber, rocket launchers mounted on trucks (including truck and AT rifles were seen in the kaserme area. Soldiers were trained with guns, aiming circles,
truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red epaulets, leaving the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by an officer with gold-red epaulets, entering the kaserne truck, occupied by twelve solders, leaving the kaserne truck, loaded with boxes, entering the kaserne. truck, occupied by twelve solders, leaving the kaserne truck, loaded with boxes, entering the kaserne. b. Kaserne south of SACHSENDORF: Occupied by: (1) Artillery unit of about 800 troops, including older personnel and recruits. Two AT guns, of 40 to 50 mm caliber were observed with the troops. Motor vehicles driven by soldiers wearing artillery insignia, were observed. (2) Fully-motorized infantry unit of about 800 troops, mostly 17 or 18 year, old recruits. Only the unit cadre personnel were trained men.		The following motor vehicles were identified:
truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by a field officer with gold-red epaulets, leaving the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by an officer with gold-red epaulets, entering the kaserne truck, occupied by twelve solders, leaving the kaserne truck, loaded with boxes, entering the kaserne. truck, loaded with boxes, entering the kaserne. b. Kaserne south of SACHSENDORF: Occupied by: (1) Artillery unit of about 800 troops, including older personnel and recruits. Two AT guns, of 40 to 50 mm caliber were observed with the troops. Motor vehicles driven by soldiers wearing artillery insignia, were observed. (2) Fully-motorized infantry unit of about 800 troops, mostly 17 or 18 year, old recruits. Only the unit cadre personnel were trained men.	X1	· ·
gold-red epaulets, leaving the kaserne truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by an officer with gold-red epaulets, entering the kaserne truck, occupied by twelve solders, leaving the kaserne truck, loaded with boxes, entering the kaserne. b. Kaserne south of SACHSENDORF: Occupied by: (1) Artillery unit of about 800 troops, including older personnel and recruits. Two AT guns, of 40 to 50 mm caliber were observed with the troops. Motor vehicles driven by soldiers wearing artillery insignia, were observed. (2) Fully-motorized infantry unit of about 800 troops, mostly 17 or 18 year, old recruits. Only the unit cadre personnel were trained men.		truck, parked in the kaserne yard truck, parked in the kaserne yard passenger car, occupied by an officer with gold-red epaulets, entering the kaserne truck, occupied by twelve solders, leaving the kaserne truck, loaded with boxes, entering the kaserne. b. Kaserne south of SACHSENDORF: Occupied by: (1) Artillery unit of about 800 troops, including older personnel and recruits. Two AT guns, of 40 to 50 mm caliber were observed with the troops. Motor vehicles driven by soldiers wearing artillery insignia, were observed. (2) Fully-motorized infantry unit of about 800 troops, mostly 17 or 18 year, old recruits. Only the unit cadre personnel were trained men.	X1
epaulets, entering the kaserne truck, occupied by twelve solders, leaving the kaserne truck, loaded with boxes, entering the kaserne. b. Kaserne south of SACHSENDORF: Occupied by: (1) Artillery unit of about 800 troops, including older personnel and recruits. Two AT guns, of 40 to 50 mm caliber were observed with the troops. Motor vehicles driven by soldiers wearing artillery insignia, were observed. (2) Fully-motorized infantry unit of about 800 troops, mostly 17 or 18 year, old recruits. Only the unit cadre personnel were trained men.	' \ I	truck, parked in the kaserne yard truck, loaded with boxes, entering the kaserne. b. Kaserne south of SACHSENDORF: Occupied by: (1) Artillery unit of about 800 troops, including older personnel and recruits. Two AT guns, of 40 to 50 mm caliber were observed with the troops. Motor vehicles driven by soldiers wearing artillery insignia, were observed. (2) Fully-motorized infantry unit of about 800 troops, mostly 17 or 18 year, old recruits. Only the unit cadre personnel were trained men.		epaulets, entering the kaserne
b. Kaserne south of SACHSENDORF: Occupied by: (1) Artillery unit of about 800 troops, including older personnel and recruits. Two AT guns, of 40 to 50 mm caliber were observed with the troops. Motor vehicles driven by soldiers wearing artillery insignia, were observed. (2) Fully-motorized infantry unit of about 800 troops, mostly 17 or 18 year, old recruits. Only the unit cadre personnel were trained men.	X1	truck, loaded with boxes, entering the kaserne Occupied by: (1) Artillery unit of about 800 troops, including older personnel and recruits. Two AT guns, of 40 to 50 mm caliber were observed with the troops. Motor vehicles driven by soldiers wearing artillery insignia, were observed. (2) Fully-motorized infantry unit of about 800 troops, mostly 17 or 18 year, old recruits. Only the unit cadre personnel were trained men.
(1) Artillery unit of about 800 croops, including older personnel and recruits. Two AT guns, of 40 to 50 mm caliber were observed with the troops. Motor vehicles driven by soldiers wearing artillery insignia, were observed. (2) Fully-motorized infantry unit of about 800 troops, mostly 17 or 18 year; old recruits. Only the unit cadre personnel were trained men.
and recruits. Two AT guns, of 40 to 50 mm caliber were observed with the troops. Motor vehicles driven by soldiers wearing artillery insignia, were observed. (2) Fully-motorized infantry unit of about 800 troops, mostly 17 or 18 year; -old recruits. Only the unit cadre personnel were trained men.		Occupied by:
(2) Fully-motorized infantry unit of about 800 troops, mostly 17 or 18 year -old recruits. Only the unit cadre personnel were trained men.	1	and recruits. Two AT guns, of 40 to 50 mm caliber were observed with the troops. Motor vehicles wear -old recruits. Only the unit cadre personnel were trained men.
	4 -
	1 [

Approved For Release 2004/07/08 .3CIA-RDP82-00457R004400 2/50004-8

25X1